THANK YOU TO EVERYONE WHO REACHED OUT TO TALK ABOUT INTEGRITY

MS. HAGAN LOVED READING
YOUR RESPONSES, YOU WERE ALL REALLY THOUGHTFUL!

WAY TO GO!

A special shout out this week to Vani Kumar, grade 7. Vani had a very insightful response:

If I am being honest here I don't think that they're have been many times where I have applied this to my life. Even until recently I thought integrity was only worth it for attention.

The reason I truly love this quote is because it really emphasizes what I believe in and the change of attitude that I once had and am still going through. This quote also emphasizes maturity which is something that can be hard to maintain.

In the end this quote symbolizes what I tell myself and really shines a light on modesty and maturity. Two aspects in life that I believe is extremely important.

OCTOBER GRIP UPDATES

KEEP THOSE CARDS COMING!

Remember this month you need two stamps or punches in each expectation for your card to be considered full! How many cards will we get this month? Lets shoot for at least 500...we're starting slow!

POSITIVITY

According to quantum physics, our thoughts have a frequency and a corresponding unique vibration that attracts similar frequencies into our lives. So negative thinking attracts negative energy; positive thinking attracts positive energy.
