

“Exploring the Higher Elevations” Packing List

- Masks (we recommend at least 3)
- Sleeping bag, blanket & pillow
- Rain gear (Top and pants. Poncho is OK.)
- Socks (A wool pair is suggested)
- Underwear
- Pants that you can wear to hike/shorts you can wear to hike if it's warm
- Shirts that you can layer
- Light jacket, sweatshirt, or fleece for layering
- Warm jacket for evenings at camp
- Two pairs of tennis shoes
- Hiking boots (Optional but recommended)
- Water shoes (Optional for playing in the lake at Colter Bay)
- Swimsuit (Optional for swimming at Colter Bay)
- Flip flops for showers
- Toiletries: (Showers are available)
  - Deodorant
  - Toothpaste/toothbrush
  - Soap
  - Wash cloth/Towel
  - Shampoo/Conditioner
- Sunglasses
- Chapstick
- Sunscreen
- Insect repellent
- Ball cap or other cap with brim
- Winter hat
- Gloves
- 3 water bottles
- Fork, knife, spoon, and reusable plate for meals
- Reusable tupperware container for sandwiches (or it will get squished in their backpack)
- Travel mug if you wish to purchase hot chocolate or coffee from the camp store
- Backpack for day hiking (no drawstring bags)
- Snacks for day hiking that you want in your backpack (Optional)
- Camera (cell phone is ok)
- Flashlight
- Binoculars (Optional)
- Hand warmers (Optional – it can get chilly in the mornings)
- Cards, a book, or sketchbook for downtime back at camp.
- There is no electricity in the cabins. A cell phone charging block or solar charger is a good idea!
- Mini campfire chair (no full size chairs) Click here for picture (Optional)
- Hammock to hang in the trees in the evening (Very Optional)