

Backcountry Camping Trip Supply List

- Sleeping bag
- Blanket & Pillow
- Rain gear (Top and pants. Poncho is OK.)
- Two pairs of tennis shoes
- Hiking boots (Optional but recommended)
- Water shoes (Optional for playing in the lake at Colter Bay)
- Swimsuit (Optional for swimming at Colter Bay)
- Socks (A wool pair is suggested)
- Underwear
- Pants that you can wear to hike/shorts you can wear to hike if it's warm
- Shirts that you can layer
- Light jacket, sweatshirt, or fleece for layering
- Sunglasses
- Ball cap or other cap with brim
- Chapstick
- Sunscreen
- Insect repellent
- 3 water bottles
- Fork, knife, spoon, and reusable tupperware container for sandwiches
- Travel mug if you wish to purchase hot chocolate or coffee from the camp store
- Backpack for day hiking (not drawstring)
- Snacks for day hiking that you want in your backpack (Optional)
- Camera (cell phone is ok)
- Flashlight
- Binoculars (Optional)
- Warm jacket for camp
- Gloves
- Hand warmers (Optional – it can get chilly in the mornings)
- Winter hat
- Flip flops for showers
- Toiletries: (Showers are available)
  - Deodorant
  - Toothpaste/toothbrush
  - Soap
  - Wash cloth/Towel
  - Shampoo/Conditioner
- There is no electricity in the cabins. A cell phone charging block or solar charger is a good idea!
- Cards, a book, or a sketch pad for downtime back at the camp groups.
- Mini campfire chair (no full size chairs) Click here for picture (Optional)
- Hammock (Optional)