Lee Expressive Arts Elementary School Principal Announced

Columbia, MO -- Julia Coggins will be recommended to the Board of Education to become the principal at Lee Expressive Arts Elementary School for the 2018-19 school year.

Coggins has more than 15 years of experience as a classroom teach and school administrator. She began her career in education as a fourth grade teacher at Blue Ridge Elementary School. She also taught at Grant Elementary School and Centralia Intermediate School. She has been the assistant principal at Eliot Battle Elementary School for the last three years. Prior to her role at Battle Elementary, she was an administrator at Alpha Hart Elementary School for two years. Coggin’s undergraduate education degree is from Evangel University and she holds graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and William Woods.

“Ms. Coggins will be a great leader and collaborator with the teachers, students and families to continue to implement learning through the arts at Lee Expressive Arts,” said Superintendent Peter Stiepleman.
