Reading Club Book Review

Name of Book: ________________________________  Author: ________________________________

Type of Award or Author Study: ________________________________

Prompts:
2. Who would you recommend this book to? Why?
3. Write a letter to one of the characters in the story. Give advice or ask questions.
4. What was your favorite or least favorite part of the story? Why?
5. What was the biggest problem and how was it solved?
6. How did you feel about the ending of the book? Was it satisfying, surprising, upsetting?
7. Create a Twitter handle (social media profile name) for one of the characters and write three tweets that character might post. One tweet should be from the beginning of the story, one from the middle and one from the end. (A tweet contains 280 characters or less.)
   a. Example of Twitter handle: @TabiTheTeacher, @books_bind
8. Why do you think the author chose this setting for the story?
9. How does the character change throughout the story? What lessons did the main character(s) learn?
10. Which character is the most like or unlike you? Explain why.
11. Rewrite the ending of the story. Use dialogue and dynamic writing.
12. Illustrate (draw and color) the most pivotal, or important, scene of the story. Provide a caption for your picture.