Section 1116 (c)(2)

The school involves parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely way:

- In the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I.A program and if applicable Schoolwide program plan in the school. Section 1116 (c)(3)

Describe how parents are involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I.A program and if applicable Schoolwide program plan in the school.

Alpha Hart Lewis holds two annual title I meetings, with all stakeholders to collaborate around school engagement opportunities ,events and to build the building plan of services.

- In the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy. Section 1116 (c)(3)

Describe how parents are involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy.

Alpha Hart Lewis holds two annual Title I meetings, with all stakeholders to collaborate around school engagement opportunities, events and to build the building plan of services.

The school provides parents of participating children:

- Timely information about the Title I.A programs. Section 1116 (c)(4)(A)

Describe plans to provide information about the Title I.A programs.

Alpha Hart Lewis holds two annual title I meetings, with all stakeholders to collaborate around school engagement opportunities, events and to build the building plan of services. Additionally, AHL holds parent meetings bi-monthly in conjunction with PTA to keep parents updated on school events, instruction and engagement opportunities.

- A description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessments that are used to measure progress, and the achievement levels of the MAP assessment. Section 1116 (c)(4)(B)

Describe methods and plans to provide a description and explanation of the curriculum, academic assessments, and MAP achievement levels.

Alpha Hart Lewis utilizes Curriculum Nights, Parent/Teacher conferences and bi-monthly parent meetings to review curriculum, assessment data and student progress. Additionally, Alpha Hart Lewis posts all data in the main hall of the building so that all stakeholders within the Alpha Hart Lewis community know the level of achievement, attendance, behavior and student growth by month and grade level.

- Opportunities, as appropriate, to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children. Section 1116 (c)(4)(C)
- Responses to their suggestions as soon as possible. Section 1116 (c)(4)(C)

SHARED RESPONSIBILITY FOR HIGH STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

School-Parent Compact

The School-Parent Compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the State’s high standards. Section 1116 (d)

- The school jointly develops with parents of Title I.A served children the school-parent compact.

The school-parent compact will

- Describe the ways in which all parents will be responsible for supporting their children’s learning. Section 1116 (d)(1)

Show interest in your child's school day.
Ask specific questions. For example, ask what the class is studying or what your child did at recess.
Get to know your child's school.
Participate in school events.
Join parent organizations.
Visit the classroom.
Participate in parent-teacher conferences.

- Describe the school’s responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment. Section 1116 (d)(1)

- Addresses the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum
 - Conducting parent-teacher conferences at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed
 - Issuing frequent reports to parents on their children's progress
 - Providing reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer, and observation of classroom activities
 - Ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, in a language that family members can understand

Section 1116 (d)(2)(A) (B),(C),(D)

BUILDING CAPACITY FOR INVOLVEMENT

To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, the school

- Provides assistance to parents, as appropriate, in understanding
 - o the Missouri Learning Standards,
 - o the Missouri Assessment Program,
 - o local assessments,
 - o how to monitor a child's progress, and
 - o how to work with educators to improve the achievement of their children.

Section 1116 (e)(1)

Describe plans to provide assistance.

Information regarding the above is provided at both yearly Title I meetings. In addition, bi-monthly parent meetings are utilized to share data, provide a venue to discuss MAP and local and building level assessments such as AIMSweb and Benchmark. Trimester parent-teacher conferences also provide information regarding student growth/performance on these assessments.

- Provides materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve achievement. Section 1116 (e)(2)

Describe plans to provide materials and training.

Information and materials are provided to parents at bi-monthly parent meetings. As well, trimester parent meetings, parent-involvement events and annual Title I meetings are utilized to share this information to support student achievement.

- Educates teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, and other school leaders, and other staff, with the assistance of parents, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between parents and the school. Section 1116 (e)(3)

Describe plans to educate school personnel regarding working with parents.

Alpha Hart Lewis uses district personnel to receive annual equity and Restorative Practices trainings. Additionally, bi-monthly parent meetings guide parent and family involvement opportunities within the school. Home visits are utilized to help bridge relationships from school to home.

To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, the school

- To the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinates and integrates parent involvement programs and activities with other Federal, State, and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conducts other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children. Section 1116 (e)(4)

Describe plans to coordinate and integrate.

Bi-monthly parent meetings are advertised to ensure all parents are presented with opportunities to provide feedback, receive information and learn more about programming.
All Title I buildings work with the preschool program and ECSE program to transition families into kindergarten. Transition meetings with both families and staff take place in the spring each year.

- Ensures that information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to the parents of participating children in a format and, in a language the parents can understand. Section 1116 (e)(5)
- Provides reasonable support for parental involvement activities under this section as parents may request. Section 1116 (e)(14)

Optional additional assurances

To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, the school: (optional; check if applicable)

- Involves parents in the development of training for teachers, principals, and other educators to improve the effectiveness of parent involvement training. Section 1116 (e)(6)
- Provides necessary literacy training from Title I funds if the local educational agency has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for literacy training. Section 1116 (e)(7)
- Pays reasonable and necessary expenses associated with local parental involvement activities, including transportation and child care costs, to enable parents to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions. Section 1116 (e)(8)
- Trains parents to enhance the involvement of other parents. Section 1116 (e)(9)
- Arranges school meetings at a variety of times, or conducts in-home conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend conferences at school, in order to maximize parental involvement and participation. Adopts and implements model approaches to improving parental involvement. Section 1116 (e)(10)
- May adopt and implement model approaches to improving parental involvement. Section 1116 (e)(11)
- Establishes a districtwide parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parental involvement in Title I programs. Section 1116 (e)(12)

Indicate needs related to strengths and weaknesses:

Increased engagement activities and celebrations building wide in order to promote sense of community.

NEEDS ASSESSMENT: IDENTIFYING PRIORITIES

"In most schools, conducting a comprehensive needs assessment will result in the identification of a large number of issues that could be addressed to improve the achievement of students. However, no school should attempt to address every identified need in a single year. Most planning experts suggest that schools prioritize their major issues and address no more than three of the most important..."
 (Designing Schoolwide Programs Non-Regulatory Guidance, March 2006)

List and number, in order of priority, the critical needs identified in the school profile.

Prioritized needs

1	Improvement in attendance to 90% or higher (currently in the 80%).
2	50% of all AHL students will be proficient on MAP in ELA (baseline is 24%)
3	50% of all AHL students will be proficient on MAP in Math (baseline is 25%)

Description of how strategy/strategies will address

We have a very high need for services in our families and often don't have the resources to meet basic physical and mental health needs. Many of our students have suffered trauma and this affects their ability to work and learn in the classroom. We connect families with services but often there are barriers such as transportation that keep families from appointments. There are also limited resources in our community for children with extreme mental health needs.
