Unit A

A big thank you to Unit A families for coming to Parent-Teacher-Student Conferences. We enjoyed sharing with you about your student.

This week your child has a note about our Thanksgiving Feast on Tuesday, November 26 at 1:30. Volunteers should arrive at 1:15 to help set up. This is a change of date!

You should also have a note about Holidays Around the World. If you would like to share about your holiday traditions, please return the Holidays Around the World form to your homeroom teacher.

Unit B

Thank you, families, for meeting with us at conferences this week. We love this time to talk with you about your kiddos!

Unit B students will be learning about poetry for the next few weeks. We will explore poetry books, as well as learn and practice a few poetry styles. Be on the look out for some creative writing!

Unit C

On November 20, international students from Columbia College are coming to Unit C to give multi-cultural presentations from 10:30 – 12:00 and then eat lunch with the students.

A message from PTSA

Want to help out at Ridgeway but not sure how? Take a second to check out the PTSA Committee Interest Indicator (https://doodle.com/poll/ppxpkgyv8q3aiabe4) and let us know what committee(s) sounds like a good fit for you. Don’t worry, this does NOT sign you up for that committee, but will help provide Committee Heads with a list of willing volunteers to contact as needs arise.

Have an idea not on the list? Check that option, at the bottom, and provide your email address and we will contact you to find a good fit. Have more questions? Contact Carissa Havens, Carissa.havens@gmail.com Thank you!

Parent Lending Library

The Parent Lending Library is available for families to check out a small bag of leveled books to practice reading skills at home. After having your child read each book a few times, return the bag to school to get new ones. If you are interested in having your child participate, please let Mrs. Munsterman or your child’s homeroom teacher know.
